- 1) The Eighteenth century and the rise of the novel.

OR

- 2) "The Enlightenment's emphasis on reason shaped philosophical, political and scientific discourse from the late 17th to the early 19th century" – Elucidate.

SECTION – B

- 3) "For its form Pope specifically selected the mock-epic and heroic couplets in order to emphasize paradox, inversion, and ironic slippage between appearance and reality, and a tension between containment and escape" – Comment with reference to the prescribed text.

OR

- 4) Comment on the use of symbols and poetic devices in Blake's poems The Tyger and The Lamb.

SECTION – C

- 5) Can Tom Jones be considered a picaresque novel – Substantiate.

OR

- 6) Comment on Charles Lamb's prose style with reference to the text prescribed for study.

SECTION – D

- 7) An improbable series of deceptions and misunderstandings about characters' identities propels the plot of She Stoops to Conquer – Discuss.

OR

- 8) "The Rivals is an amusing satire on the fashionable upper-class of Sheridan's time" – Comment. (4×10=40)

II. Annotate any four of the following, each in about 80 words:

- 9) Love in these labyrinths his slaves detains,
And mighty hearts are held in slender chains.
With hairy springes we the birds betray,
Slight lines of hair surprise the finney prey,
Fair tresses man's imperial race ensnare,
And beauty draws us with a single hair.
- 10) He is called by thy name,
For he calls himself a Lamb:
He is meek & he is mild,
He became a little child:
I a child & thou a lamb,
We are called by his name.
- 11) In such a night, when every louder wind
Is to its distant cavern safe confined;
And only gentle Zephyr fans his wings,
And lonely Philomel, still waking, sings:
Or from some tree, famed for the owl's delight,
She, hollowing clear, directs the wand'rer right
- 12) To come to my house, to call for what he likes, to turn me out of my own chair, to insult the family, to order his servants to get drunk, and then to tell me, "This house is mine, sir". By all that's impudent, it makes me laugh. Ha! ha! ha! Pray, sir (bantering), as you take the house, what think you of taking the rest of the furniture ?

- 13) In such a night let me abroad remain,
Till morning breaks, and all's confused again;
Our cares, our toils, our clamors are renewed,
Or pleasures, seldom reached, again pursued.
- 14) For when thy folding star arising shows
His paly circlet, at his warning lamp
The fragrant Hours, and elves
Who slept in flowers the day,
And many a nymph who wreathes her brows with sedge
And sheds the fresh'ning dew, and lovelier still,
The pensive pleasures sweet
Prepare thy shad'wy car.

(4×5=20)

III. Answer any four of the following, each in about 100 words :

- 15) "The Spectator's Club" reveals Steele's keen power of observation and skill in characterization – Comment.
- 16) Friday in Robinson Crusoe.
- 17) The Houyhnhnms in Gullivers Travels.
- 18) How does Gray commemorate the dead in Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard ?
- 19) Mrs. Malaprop in Rivals.
- 20) Explain how "The Deserted Village" idealizes a rural way of life that was being destroyed by the displacement of agrarian villagers. (4×5=20)
