NEWYORK: It was a stunning role reversal for a youthful company that prides itself in promoting unfettered expression, 140 characters at a time. Twitter insisted its commitment to the speech remains firm while critics proposed a Twitter boycott and demanded that the censorship initiative be scrapped.

Twitter, a tool of choice for dissidents and activists around the world, found itself the target of global outrage after unveiling plans to allow country specific censorship of tweets that might break local laws Alexander, Macgilliviray, Twitter's general counsel said critics were jumping to wrong conclusions.
