SECTION – C

V. Read the passage given below and answer the questions.

'Give me your blood and I shall give you freedom'. This was the call the great National Hero gave to the nation. He thought that in order to attain a great thing like liberty, one is required to pay a heavy price and that price is blood. Liberty of a country can never be a gift, but one has always to pay for it. He further ordained that liberty obtained as a gift cannot last long if one is not prepared to fight for it and defend it at all costs. Subhash Chandra Bose was a man of granite will. He believed more in action than in passive resistance. He was a disciple of Gandhiji yet he differed from the Master. Their ends were the same but they differed in means. Subhash was a man of iron will and a revolutionary. He believed that we should make sacrifices to win freedom. We should guard liberty to preserve it.

- 1) What was the call that Subhash gave to the nation ?
- 2) What do you understand by iron will and revolution ?
- 3) What was the common aim of Gandhiji and Bose ?
- 4) Why did Gandhiji and Bose differ in achieving their aim ?
- 5) What is the price of liberty ?

(5×1=5)

VI. Based on the passage above, answer any one in 80 words:

- 1) Find the word from the passage which means order officially. Write 3 sentences using the word.
- 2) How can liberty be protected ?
- 3) What was Bose's ideas on freedom ?
