

Association of Former Salesians Aspirants and Novices of DON BOSCO

Circular Quiz 11 01 2022

Don Bosco is an icon that needs no introduction within and outside Catholic Church. He is a symbol of youth dynamism. He didn't set a frame for youth but inquired why they were so. He discovered that youth was full of energy, most of which went wasted and the rest got channelled to avenues that did not benefit them.

His venture was to channelize this abused and wasted energy into creativity. He was never adamant to force a square bolt into a round nut. He created avenues to channelize each one's energy the way it was intended. Those who wished to sing they sang and they played who wished to play. There is music, games, technology, dramas, theatre, printing, propaganda and a level field for everyone's imagination. Education, employment, recreation and orientation transferred the youth that flooded the streets with fists and clubs to schools, colleges, technical institutions, studios, theatres, sports and games stadium. With good education, steady income and recognition in society, the headache of law and order became a force to reckon with.

Don Bosco's call, 'give me souls and take away the rest' beamed around the globe and the Salesian and its past pupil network dot every continent, country, its cities and rural suburbs alike. The past pupils of Don Bosco formed an association, presently under the banner 'Association of former Salesians, Aspirants and Novices of Don Bosco' to continue in the path shown by Don Bosco and to lead youth with the zeal inherited from him. Being brim with the zeal of Don Bosco, they find no barriers that cannot be broken, no terrain inaccessible, no language unspoken and no soul left unaided. Though India may be the cradle of the association, it has its wings spread in almost every nation through its past pupil associates. The Don Bosco spirit is guiding and guarding their collectives, large and small. We are motivated by our inner call to reciprocate the love and care provided to us by Don Bosco institutes in our youth by being a source of love and care for the youth around us. The first step of our introduction is to introduce Don Bosco to youth.
