SNEHAVEEDU

“Snehaveedu project” (Home for the Homeless) is one of the major initiative projects taken by NSS units of Don Bosco Arts and Science college Angadikadavu. It was a dream project for everyone. NSS units took initiative of construction of a house for a financially backward poor Women, Lakshmi Pattathil. She’s also working staff at the college canteen and she has been living in a small shed since last 10 years. And there were no action taken by the authorities. At this stage after knowing her miserable condition and difficulties. We managed financial support from our volunteers, PTA, Public and started constructing a house. It was a herculean task but a dream project. Around 6 lakhs rupees were invested and it took around 4 months to complete the dream project. It was huge and risky task but with the Cooperation of the volunteers and Management and others, we successfully build a house for her.

ONE DAY WORKSHOP

The NSS unites of DBC conducted one day workshop for volunteers. Volunteers were divided into three groups of 30 and prepared an annual plan. Each group was given activities to do in each month. It increased the bond between the volunteers through the games conducted in the camp.

KARUNYA BHAVAN VISIT

It is the realization that pleasures and sorrows in life are mixed and that happiness in life is fleeting that makes us wise. It is our thoughts and actions that make us good people who have everything about the surroundings of life and worldly things. Most of our young World used to experience only a life with happiness. There are a lot of poor people in life, and the purpose of charity is to do something good for them. In the afternoon, the third group was taken to visit KarunyaBhavan, located at Vengadu near Koothuparamba. We often see accidents as frustrating in life. The visit was also aimed at imparting a different knowledge. The founder of KarunyaBhavan, a shelter for the homeless, is Mohanan, who fell from a tree and suffered a spinal injury. He was an example for the volunteers who rose from struggles in life. Volunteers talked to the inmates and sang for them

MAKING RAIN HARVESTING PIT

Water preservation is essential in human life. As a part of a project assigned from college to dig up Rain water Harvesting pit, we set out to the neighborhood homes at 8.30 am itself. We succeeded in digging 30 Rainwater harvesting pit. The volunteers were enthusiastic in completing the task. The first group made it a triumph in digging up 2 pits per house. The objective behind pit digging was to restrict the flow of rainwater from household premises and thereby elevating the ground water level. Sarath the former program officer inaugurated the project by digging a hole for respective pit. Each pit had a dimension of 1.5 m depth and 2m width. Our activity instrumented the idea of water preservation and its significance.

PLASTIC MUKTHA SANDESHA PRAJARANAM

The students were undertaken a programme for promoting the motto of environmental safety. They conducted an awareness programme of prohibiting the usage of plastic bags. It was greatly supported by a concrete movement of providing or handing over an eco friendly bag which is made out of cloth. The students went around every shop and gave an awareness to avoid the plastic bags which are of harmful to our environment. It created an enthusiastic move to every individual to safe guard the earth. The eco-friendly bag gave them an inspiration and to take a systematic change in the shopping habit of people and the shopkeeper. The students themselves shopped some of the products by using the eco friendly bag. Thus this acts has created an impact on the people to have a change in their lives for a better living. This programme was presided by the AyyobKoliyam the merchant association present, inaugurated by chairman A.Ashokan , the chairman of Iritty municipality, felicitated by Jafar KJ, then merchant youth wing president, strikers and cloth bags received by Jayarajan owner royal bakery Iritty.

SNEHA SPARSHAM

“Handover the money collected by the NSS through T T marketing”

The NSS student of DBAC College has undertaken a life giving saving act of helping a paraplegia patient, ShivanMeppadi. He can't earn in his normal life but prepares umbrella for wining his daily bread by sitting whole day. This gave enlightenment and a new hope to our students to help him in his adventurous life. The students have sold 100 umbrellas and handed over 32000/- (100*320) to him. His hard work and courage and willing enabled them to help the helpless, to have a close contact with the society and to themselves. This programme

Jaivam project means a literacy programme for them peoples living in PinarayiGramapanjayath. We visited the village people and talked about natural farming.

JAIVAM

7 DAYS CAMPING ACTIVITIES

In order to strengthen the 'Haritha Keralam' project, the State Government, IUCOFSA drafted a public education programme christened 'Jaivam', to create awareness among the public on the necessity to embrace organic living and farming practices to bring in family level self sufficiency in fruits and vegetables. The volunteers from Don Bosco Arts and science college Angadikadavu, M.G. College, Chinmaya College participated in the ' Jaivam- 17 camp'.
Venue: Pinarayi AKG Memorial Higher Secondary School.

Date: December 23rd to 29th 2017.

The volunteers after getting themselves registered lined up in the camping dress code (white T Shirt and cap bearing 'Jaivam' logo) for the declaration procession at 2.30 pm on the first day in front of the camping site at Pinarayi AKG Memorial Higher Secondary School. The inaugural session commenced with NSS Geetham. Panchayath President Smt. Geethamma presided over the function. K.K. Rajeevan, Block Panchayath President, inaugurated the camp. Kannur University Pro Vice Chancellor, Dr. Ashokan was the Chief Guest. M.R. Unni, Registrar, M.G. University and General Convener 'Jaivam' was the distinguished guests. Programme Convener Sheena welcomed the gathering. Later various committees were formed for the smooth conduct of the camp.

2ND Day: The second day commenced with Zumba dance. House visits by various groups and volunteers (9.30 am to 3.30 pm) for survey and handing over the handbook were the main activities on the camp for all days. Each college were allotted four wards for the field visits. The volunteers were given prior training in organic farming and camping activities which ensured smooth conduct of the camp. The ward members were very active in making the house visits swifter for the NSS volunteers. The ward members ensured to provide lunch to the volunteers in their respective places.

3RD Day: The visit of Hon'ble Chief Minister Sri. Pinarayi Vijayan gave impetus to the camp besides bringing vibrancy and seriousness among the campers on the 'Jaivam' project. The CM was received with 'JAIVAM' T-Shirt and Cap. Programme Convener Sheena K. welcomed the gathering. The living. The deteriorating health conditions of the people can be easily traced back to the toxic food items being available to be consumed, majority of which comes from neighboring states. This situation can easily be reserved by ensuing self sufficiency in food items including fruits and vegetables. The Chief Minister called for continuous vigilance on food, agriculture and health practices to create a vibrant new Kerala. The agro-based culture of Kerala has undergone drastic change during the recent past. We bid adieu to agricultural practices and started depending on others to meet our food requirements, the edibles reaching the State are contaminated with toxic materials which are dangerous to our health. This is alarming. The vegetables and fruits which we eat are 22 neither healthy enough nor tasty as produced by organic means. We have to change the culture. The people of the State should be educated to become self reliant by producing their own food requirements. I believe that JAIVAM initiative is a complimentary project of the flagship Haritha Kerala project of the Government. Group Dynamics held on December 25,

Chief Minister urged the students to reinvent the traditional agriculture resorting to modern scientific methods to ensure better and health

4TH DAY: House visits by various groups and volunteers (9.30 am to 3.30 pm) for survey and handing over the handbook were the main activities on the camp for all days. Each college were allotted four wards for the field visits The volunteers were given prior training in organic farming and camping activities which ensured smooth conduct of the camp. Rajeevan Vengad's 'Vijaya Manthranam' on 26th

5TH DAY: A documentary screened on 27th night made the volunteers more vibrant in the camp. Evening cultural programmes were filled with fun and frolic.

6TH DAY: The 'Kalasandhya' held on 28th was a remarkable vision feast of art and culture which out smarted all the participants and they inspired by seeing the massive participation of the public.

7TH DAY: Sri Ramachandran Kadannappally, Minister for Ports and Archeology inaugurated the valedictory meeting on December 29 who declared Pinarayi Grama Panchayath as the first Organic Literate Panchayath in Kannur District. Our Camp Magazine named 'JaivaVeedhi' was released on the occasion. The camp ended with rendering of National Anthem.

M G UNIVERSITY AWARD FOR JAIVAM PROJECT

M G University awarded Don Bosco NSS Unit for conducting the best Jaivam Programme at Pinarayi Panchayath "Jaivam" Project was the vision and dream of M G University under the great vision of Haritha Keralam project launched by Kerala Government.
